The Tryals of the Prisoners were as follows.

London Side. Joseph Dunn and John Poole, of the Parish of Christ Church, were Indicted for stealing a Silver Cup or Cann, from William Clark Victualler, on the 15th day of March last; Poole pleaded Guilty to the Indictment, and the Evidence against Dunn, was, that they came both into the Prosecutor's House, and called for Drink, and took their opportunity to make an Exchange, leaving a Tinn Cann in the room of a Silver one, and marcht off both together; and being afterwards taken, the Cann was found upon Poole, but both being concerned, Dunn was brought in Guilty of the Felony.

They were both tryed upon a second Indictment, for stealing on the 7th of March last, from Jonathan Mayfield a Silver Tumbler, value 18*s.* by the Evidence it appeared, that they came into the Prosecutors House to drink, and took their opportunity to leave a Pewter Tumbler in the room of a Silver one, and were both brought in Guilty.

John Rawen, alias Anderson, was Indicted for stealing goods from Elizabeth Johnson, of the Parish of St. Botolph Bishopsgate, to the value of [illegible] on the 24th of April. He was taken on the Hue & Cry the Maids Bed, and had taken the goods out of the Maids Box, with a design to carry them off. He easily pleaded he was in Drink, and knew not where he was. He was brought in guilty of Felony.

Matthew Dobrow of the Parish of St. Mary Aldermary, was Indicted for taking away from Grace Mortimer, on the 5th of April, on the King's Highway, Eleven pair of Mens Black Shamoy Gloves, value 30*s.* and Eleven pair of Womens Shamoy Gloves, value [illegible], being the goods of Samuel Rudock. And was positive by the Evidence that the Prisoner took them from under her Apron in the Street, and that she pursued him into a Cellar. He was brought in guilty [illegible].

John Gurney was Indicted for stealing from Richard Reeve on the 22d of March [illegible] Velvet. By the Evidence it appeared that he had broke an Iron Grate where they used to lay by their Stuffs in the Shop, and got in his Arm and pulled out the goods, which were taken in his Breeches. He was brought in Guilty.

Ann Jones of the Parish of Great St. Bartholomews, was Indicted for stealing 27 yards of Norwich Stuff, value 24*s.* from George Walkington the Ninth of April, she came to the Prosecutor's Shop to cheapen some goods, and carried away a Piece of Stuff in her Riding-hood, and being pursued, it was taken upon her. She was brought in guilty to the value of 10*d.*

Jacob Nicholls and Roger Allen of the Parish of St. Peters Poor, were Indicted for stealing a Silver Tankard, value 5*l.* from Richard Crane, on the 23d of April. All that was made out by the Evidence was, that the Prisoners used to come to the House to Drink with one John Markes, who was not to be found; And nothing being positive upon the Prisoners they were brought in not Guilty.

Ruth Soames, alias Reeves, of the Parish of St. Brides, was Indicted for stealing from Mary Wilds on the 7th of March last, one pair of Drugget Vallens and one pair of Drugget Curtains, value 20*s.* a pair of Flaxen Sheets, and other goods. It appeared to the Court, that the Prisoner took a Room Furnished of the Prosecutor, and that she was Insulted with the said goods, for the use of which she paid a rate extraordinary, therefore that it could not reach to be Felony. She was brought in not Guilty.

Emmanuel Jones and John Perry, were Indicted for Picking the Pocket of Robert Gray, of the Parish of St. Brides, of a Book, value 2*s.* and 3*s.* in Money. The Prosecutor said he was in Drink, and was got among some Women in Salisbury Court; but not being positive in his Evidence as to the Prisoners at the Bar, they were brought in not Guilty.

John Gurlin and Mary Ward, were Indicted for stealing

ing on the 5th of March last, a Silver Tumbler, value 40 s. from Jonathan Mayfield of the Parish of Christ-Church; Carter pleaded Guilty to the Indictment: and it appearing against Mary Ward, that she went into the Prosecutor's House to drink with Carter, they took their opportunity to carry off the Cup, which when she was taken prisoner to help them to it again, if they would let her go, she was brought in Guilty, to the value of 9*l.*

Joseph Peirce of the Parish of St. Giles Cripplegate, was Indicted for stealing on the Second of March last, four half Crowns from Thomas Pardoe. It appeared upon the Evidence, that he came into the Prosecutor's Shop, and took the Money out of a Slit in the Till, with a thin Stick and Bird-lime at the end of it. And the Prosecutor making it appear he had lost Money several times before, the Jury brought him in Guilty.

William Trumper and Thomas Wilson of the Parish of St. Martins Ourgar were Indicted for stealing from John Lingen, four Pewter Trencher-plates, and a Silver Spoon, value 10 s. It appeared that they had stole them out of the Prosecutor's Kitchin, he keeping a Lace-shop, and Wilson confessed that he had put them in Trumper's Pocket. And having nothing to say for themselves, but that they were in Drink, they were both brought in guilty to the value of 10 s. each.

Ralph Hollingshead of the Parish of St. Botolph Billingsgate, was Indicted for stealing on the 12th of January last, from Edward Morse, two Diaper Table-cloaths, value 14 s. one pair of Pillow-bears, value 4 s. one Case with Silver, value 3 s. one pair of Cuffs for Gowns, value 2 l. and other Goods. The Evidence could not make it appear that he took the Goods out of the House, but that he used to Wash Linnen for them, and several others; and several Persons came to speak for her Reputation. It was look'd upon as a malicious Prosecution, and she was Acquitted.

Nicholas Mason, of the Parish of St. Nicholas Cole-Abby, was Indicted for Breaking open the House of Edward Harding, at Eight of the Clock in the Night, and stealing thence one Pair of Holland Sleeves, value 6 s. one pair of Lace Ruffles, value 5 s. Holland Handkerchiefs and four Yards of Bonelace, with other goods; but no Evidence being positive upon him, he was brought in Not Guilty.

Sarah Borne alias Kew, of St. Mithael Bassishaw, was Indicted for breaking open the House of John Wily in the day time, the 12th of February last, no person being therein, and taking thence one pair of gold Buttons value 30 s. and one Gold Watch with a Pendulum value 40 l. the Goods of Ebenezer Wily, and two linnen Baggs value 6*d.* one leather Bagg value 1*d.* with 600 l. in Mony numbred, the Goods and Chattels of John Wily. By the Evidence it appeared, that while the Family were gone to a hearing on Sunday, some Persons came in at the top of the House, broke open several Locks, and carried off the forementioned things. The Woman was apprehended, going to pawn the buttons at a Pawn-Brokers in Chancery-House Lane, Mr. Wales Name being engraven underneath the Buttons, but it not being proved that she was in the House, or that she was a Confederate, some Persons also giving an Accompt, that she had been entrusted in several of their Houses, and could say nothing against her, she also pleading in her own defence, that she found the Buttons at Oxford Leg, and upon the whole, she was brought in not Guilty.

Richard Whiting alias Jones, was Indicted for stealing on the 25th of April, three pair of Holland Sheets, value 30 s. from Henry Reddaway. The Evidence said, soul in a lower Room in Reddaway's House, and that Prisoner took his opportunity to go into the House and take it away under his Arm, and the Woman of the House, espying his shadow going out of the door, ran after him, crying, Stop Thief, and he being pursued, dropt them in the Street, he was brought in Guilty.

Richard Quake alias Lock, and John Pitt alias Hall, were Indicted for Breaking open the House of William Collyer, of the Parish of St. Nicholas Acres, at Nine in the Night, and stealing thence two pieces of Scarlet Cloath, value 25 l. It appeared upon the Evidence that they got in at the Window, and had given the Goods to a Woman who was taken with the Cloath under her Arm. They being old Offenders, were both brought in Guilty.

Nicholas Mason of the Parish of St. Nicholas Cole-Abby, was Indicted for stealing from Elizabeth Hodges one pair of Holland Sleeves, value 6 s. one pair of Lace Ruffles, value 5 s. four yards of Bonelace and other goods, on the 24th of March last. It appeared that the Prosecutor being a Lodger in the House, the Prisoner got into the House, and was taken jumping out of the Window with the goods upon him. He was brought in Guilty.

William Fisher was Indicted for stealing from Mary Dale divers Goods of hers, on the 8th of March last, one Silver Cup value 40 s. six Silver Spoons, value 9 l. two Silk Hoods, value 3 l. two Gold Rings, value 20 s. six Diaper Napkins, and other Goods. It appeared that the Prosecutor living in Lancaster-Inn, the goods were found in London upon the Prisoner, who had employed the Carrier to bring them to Town; but it appearing to the Court that it was by the consent of the Prosecutor's Wife, it was look'd upon as a Frivolous Prosecution, and the Prisoner was Acquitted.

John Wyatt of the Parish of St. Clement's Danes, was Indicted for Robbing Samuel Hunt Gent. of a Silver Hat, value 3 l. on the King's Highway, on the 20th of February last. It was plainly proved that he snatch'd off the Gentlemans Hat in Wellclose Square, in the Strand, and the Gentleman following him, seized him, and upon his Examination he confessed the Fact. He was brought in Guilty.

Worcester. Richard Musselbrooke and Philip Musselbrooke, of the Parish of Fulham, were Indicted for Breaking open the House of Margaret Nisbet Widdow, on the Third of March last, and stealing thence a Linnen Cloath, value 6 s. and 10 l. in Money Numbred, being the Goods of William Lawrence. There could be little proved against the Prisoners, but that they being Brick-makers, a Young Man that Work'd with them being in want of Cloaths, one of the Prisoners gave him a Frock, which William Rhodrick, the Prosecutor found upon the Young Man's Back, which the Prisoners said they found; and nothing as to the Money being proved upon the Prisoners, and several Persons with some of the Jury speaking as to their Reputation, they were brought in guilty to the value of 6*d.* only.

John Cropland of the Parish of St. Martin's in the Fields, was Indicted for Assaulting and Killing David Roberts on the 14th of February last; it appear'd that they were both Souldiers, and going in to a House to Drink, some words arose between them, about the Wife of the Deceased, the Prisoner reproving him for abusing his Wife, upon which the Deceased Drew upon him; and the Chirurgeon making it appear that he had been very careless of himself after he had received his Wounds, Drinking very hard and going abroad; also his Colonel and other Gentlemen giving a good Character of the Prisoner, he was brought in guilty of Manslaughter only.

John Fish and Sarah his wife, and Letty Fryer were Indicted for Stealing from Margaret [illegible] a Canvas Bag and 5 l. 10 s. in Money numbered, but the Evidence not being positive to charge the taking upon the Prisoners, and the Circumstances of the Fact being circumstantial, they were all three brought in not Guilty.

William Cole, a Souldier of [illegible] was Indicted for Stealing from Sarah Gilbert [illegible] on the 10th of February last, 2 Yards of Holland, and other goods. The Scotchman was going down the Street at the other end of the Town with his Pack upon his Back, and the Souldier being in Drink quarrelled with him, upon which words arose, and a Crowd gathered, the Prosecutor setting down his Pack it was stole away, but it could not positively be charged upon the Prisoner, and the Jury brought him in not Guilty.

Thomas Cook of the Parish of St. Andrew Holborn, was Indicted for privily stealing a Gold Watch from the side of Mrs. Johnson on the 15th of April, in St. Anne Church Westminster. The Gentlewoman missing her Watch as soon as it was taken from her Side, Seized the Prisoner standing next her, who was presently Searched, but the Watch was found dropp'd in the Church and brought to her; but she not being able to charge it upon him, he was brought in not Guilty.

Thomas Burton of St. Martins in the Field, was Indicted for stealing from Thomas Atchison on the 16th of February last, several pieces of Ribbon, to the value of above 1 l. The Prisoner came into the Prosecutors Shop pretending to buy some Ribbon of the Servant being there, he took her opportunity to convey seven pieces of Ribbon into her Apron, he was afterward taken, and confessed the Fact, and that he had carryed them to a Brokers in Drury Lane, to whom he sold them outright for 5 s. which the Court taking notice of, gave orders for the Prosecution of the Broker; he was brought in Guilty to the value of 9 s.

Robert Wright and Richard Standley of Hampstead, were Indicted for Robbing of John Clark on the Highway on the 4th of January last, and taking from him 1 Mare and one Guinea, 16 s. 8 d. in Mony, one Bridle, and other Goods. It appeared that the two Prisoners being on Horseback, the other on Foot, set upon the Prisoner by the Hill on this side Hampstead, and Robbed him, and they were afterwards taken at Nottingham. One of the Evidence declaring that he had been Robbed by the same Persons some time since, and the proof being positive upon them, they were found Guilty of Felony and Robbery.

James Bilby was Indicted for Stealing from one [illegible] on the 10th of April, 1 Serge gown value 20 s. a Cloath Petticoat value 10 s. and other goods; The Prisoner having confessed, that one Philips went with the goods to pawn them, and the Prosecutor making it appear that the goods were hers, he was brought in Guilty to the value of 10 d.

Francis Brereton Esq; was Indicted for killing of [illegible] on the 6th of March last, he was also Indicted on the Statute of Stabbing, and upon the Coroners Inquest; It appeared plain by the Evidence that the Person killed, was a Servant to Mr. Maddiman, and that the Gentleman coming out of his lodging with a Sword drawn, run the Deceased into the Back without any Provocation, of which he dyed, But several Persons of Quality appearing in the behalf of the Gentleman, that he had been a Person distracted and much discomposed in his mind for some time before, as they fully believed, upon some ill success in Love; 12 or 14 Witnesses appeared for him upon this account, as also a Minister and Doctor of Physick, whose whole business lies among Persons Distracted, they related several Stories of him to satisfy the Jury and the Court, whereby it might appear that he was subject to Fremitus and Delirium, the Tryal held a great while, and the Jury taking all into Consideration, brought him in not Guilty.

Mary Bracky, of St. Martins in the Field, was Indicted upon 2 Indictments, one for Stealing Goods on the 20th of January last, from Cornelius Taylor to the value of 4 l. 5 s. She appeared to be a Servant in the House, and that she had stole the goods from her Master, and that she confessed the Fact and gave Directions where to find the goods, she was also Indicted for Stealing from Miles Mabee of St. Martins in the Field, a Silver Spoon and some Child-bed Linnen, where the goods were taken upon her. The Jury brought her in Guilty of the first Indictment to the value of 40 s. and of the second, to the value of 10 d.

Thomas Birch of St. Andrew Holborn, was Indicted for killing of Edward Bunny and Samuel Wilson on the 2d of April. The Witnesses were positive upon him, that the Boys of the 2 Parishes of St. Andrew Holborn and Clarkenwel, meeting upon the bounds of the Parishes, and opposing one another as they use to do with Sticks, he bid those of St. Andrew Holborn go on, and he would stand by them, upon which he drew his Piece and fired among them, upon a Level, killing the 2 Persons Deceased with one Bullet, shooting one under the left Breast, and the other by the side of the Navel standing behind one another; he was brought in Guilty of Murther.

John Edwards, of the Parish of Saffron, was Indicted for killing and murthering of Richard Gilson, on the 10th of April, some Seamen and others quarrelling at a Musick House at the Bermudas, having no Swords or Sticks among them, the Prisoner runs in among them, hearing that they were abusing an acquaintance of his, and swearing he would make a Slaughter among them, drew his Sword and gave the deceased his mortal Wound; he was brought in Guilty of Murther.

John Bradshaw and Abraham Tillet, were Indicted for Robbing Humphrey Edwards upon the High Way, and taking from him 5 l. 2 s. in Mony numbred. The only Evidence against them was the Prosecutor, who deposed that he being a Drover, and going into Leicestershire, they met him by the Boarded House beyond Islington about break of Day, and took away his Mony, But some other circumstances occurring as that he might be mistaken in the Persons being so very early in the Morning, and they bringing some to prove where they were that morning, and others as to his Reputation, they were brought in not Guilty.

Stephen Gbip, was Indicted for stealing from Ann Jennings of Bransford in Middlesex, on the 7th of May, 1 Silver Porrenger value 30 s. 3 Silver Tasters value 8 s. 3 Jacobus pieces, Rings, 30 l. in Mony, and other things. It appeared that the Prisoner had been her Apprentice, and that he had left open the Windows whereby other Thieves had got into the House, and that he had lost the things at several times, but the Prosecutor not being positive as to the Prisoner, and other circumstances concurring, he was brought in not Guilty.

Jane Bigby, was Indicted for stealing from Richard Tolland of St. Clements Dane, on the 8th of March last, 50 l. in mony numbred. The only Evidence was the Prosecutor, and the Prisoner was his Servant, but he not missing his Mony in 6 Weeks after it was lost, and only saying none but the Prisoner came into his Room, it was not thought proofe sufficient, and she was brought in not Guilty.
